THE OLD SUN FIRE ENGINE. - The N. Y. World of yes erday says: A lot of old volun teer firemen on Saturday gave an exhibition of the working qualities of the engine they are to take with them to the Trey tournament this week. The engine is a double decker, built in 1855, and has a history. It was captured by the Ellsworth First Fire Zouaves on their entry into Alexandria, Va., the same day that the gallant Eilsworth met h s death. It was used the same evening to put out a disastrous fire in King street. The engine is a beauty and it is expected will The hubs are of princess metal and reprecrossing the Delaware and Pecahontas sav-ing Capt. John Smith. "Volunteer" and "We have Saved" are inscribed on the engine in glittering brass. The old machine was drawn up in Lafayette place and the wheels were blocked. The upper decks were manned with a dozen or more veteran fire holdies and the others took a hand be-The pumps were worked with a will in the midst of the greatest excitement and enthusiasm, and water was spurted about regardlessly. The firemen will leave with their rolle for Trey next Wednesday even-

V., on Thursday last and of the performance the Advertiser says: "Every seat in the large opera house was filled last evening, and many paid the full admission price for the privilege of leaning against the wall and enjoying the first performance of the season by Wilson & Rankin's newly organized minstrels. The company is composed of the best minstrel and musical talent. The program with its varied specialties is too extended to be reportod in full, but not too long for thorough en-joyment by the audience. The first part is a big bouquet of good things and laughs came hearty and close together, the grand opening being the celebrated Boulanger march. Jolly jokes, jibes and jests are inter spered among good songs."
